Built in 1878, this graceful traditional two-storey Santorini Mansion was once owned by one of the most powerful families of the island. The family had occupied the first floor with the ground floor serving as winery and cellar. The villa has been sensitively renovated, retaining the original structure and traditional features. It is tastefully decorated with fine antique pieces of furniture. Original wooden floors and arched ceilings add to the warm and exceptional atmosphere of the house. Villa Mansion 1878 consists of two spacious self-contained units; a stone stairway leads from the courtyard to the first floor with terraces and a panoramic view on the village. The first floor
