pavilion style. The various pavilions for living, sleeping, dining and relaxing are laid out on three sides around the central pool. In the interior of the pavilions, traditional Thai style has been combined with contemporary furniture and state-of-the-art technology to form a harmonious, luxurious unit. Villa Samui Dream can accommodate up to 12 people in 2 master bedrooms and 4 double bedrooms. Two of the double bedrooms always share a sleeping pavilion and have with interconnecting doors.

Guests are looked after by a service team that lives separately on the property. The chef prepares the breakfast and caters to the guests' taste and preference. Only the grocery shopping is settled separately on site.

The villa can also be rented for 6 persons with 3 bedrooms. 2 sleeping pavilions then remain closed.
