This loft apartment is located in a prime location in Camps Bay overlooking palm trees and the sea. The flat is located in the top level of an apartment building. The owner, an Italian architect and interior designer, commutes between her homes in Cape Town and Rome. She made sure that every detail of the renovation was thought through to the smallest detail and that the workmanship was perfect. The modern furniture is of the highest quality and the warm colors of the interior create a harmonious and dignified living ambience. The spacious and open living area consists of the living room, which has a room-high shelf with a huge flat screen Apple TV and Sonos surround sound system. The living area is followed by the spacious dining area and the modern kitchen, which is equipped with quality appliances from Miele. The loft has four bedrooms, each with shower/WC ensuite. One of
