This holiday villa in the Algarve has been recently renovated and offers plenty of comfort with a touch of authentic, rustic Portuguese style. It is located in a quiet, rural area with quick access to all the highlights of the region and only a short drive away from the best beaches and hotspots of Vale do Lobo and Quinta do Lago. You can enjoy your holiday in the spacious garden with a large, heated saltwater pool. Sliding doors open from the living room with large dining table to the covered veranda with barbecue station, where you can enjoy your meals. Social barbecues under the starry Algarve sky will be a highlight of your holiday. A fully equipped u-shaped kitchen invites you to hone your cooking skills. The rustic-chic interiors offer plenty of space and the four bedrooms are comfortable and spacious. One room with en-suite shower/WC is located in the guest house and is only accessible via the terrace, making it an ideal room for teenagers or an au pair. The staircase to the 1st floor has an open, wrought-iron railing and for this reason the house is not suitable for children under the age of 8. A maid comes twice a week. Grocery shops, supermarkets and restaurants can be reached within 5 - 10 minutes by car.

The beautiful sandy beaches of Praia de Falesia and Praia da Quinta do Lago are also only 10 to 15 minutes away by car.

The excellent golf courses Vale do Lobo and Quinta do Lago South can also be reached within a few minutes.
