The exclusive hotel resort Constance Lemuria is located on the northwest coast of the second largest Seychelles island Praslin embedded in the lush tropical landscape. The exclusive resort stretches along three white pristine beaches and is home to both a turtle sanctuary and the Seychelles' only 18-hole championship golf course with stunning views of the Indian Ocean. With direct beach access, gourmet restaurants, first-class service and the elegant atmosphere, Constance Lemuria is the perfect place for an unforgettable vacation.

After an extensive renovation using natural materials, the luxury resort was reopened at the end of 2016. It has a total of 96 suites, 8 beach villas and a Presidential Villa that leaves nothing to be desired. The elegant, spacious suites and villas of Constance Lemuria are equipped with all modern amenities and offer every luxury and comfort.

The four restaurants of the Constance Lemuria spoil their guests with local and international culinary delights. Guests can enjoy a relaxing drink in one of the five bars with a magnificent view of the beaches.

The premium wellness and spa area offers treatments adapted to individual preferences. In the direct vicinity of Constance Lemuria are some of the best diving spots in the world. At the Constance Kids Club, your children will experience exciting adventures and go on amazing explorations.

Constance Lemuria is located 10 minutes from the Praslin island airport. A helicopter transfer from Mahé can also be arranged upon request.
