Overlooking the Port Launay National Marine Park, the luxurious Constance Ephelia Resort is located between two magnificent sandy beaches on the beautiful west coast of Mahé, the main island of the Seychelles. The resort is surrounded by 120 hectares of lush, tropical landscape. Constance Ephelia Resort is the perfect destination for a Seychelles holiday for couples and families, offering endless opportunities for relaxation, wellness and sports. Constance Ephelia Resort is about 40 minutes by car from Seychelles International Airport and about 30 minutes from the capital Victoria.

The resort has a total of around 300 rooms, suites and villas of various categories, which are spread across the extensive tropical landscape. The rooms are spacious and modern and impress with a high level of comfort and privacy as well as with their unique and creative design, ensuring a special holiday atmosphere. You can choose from rooms in the blossoming garden, a suite on the beach or a villa in the mountains with a fantastic view. Each of the villas is available with either two or three bedrooms and also has its own pool.

Guests can enjoy culinary delights in one of the five restaurants, each with its own gastronomic concept.

Cocktails and local tropical juices are served in the resort's six bars.

During their stay, guests can enjoy a variety of activities, sports and wellness. The Constance Ephelia offers the largest spa in the Indian Ocean with countless beauty and wellness treatments. Sports activities include yoga, tennis, squash and of course kayaking, sailing, diving, snorkelling directly on the resort's beach and much more.
