The terraces around the pool, which are partly covered, invite to enjoy meals. The furniture of the holiday home is tasteful and comfortable. In the guesthouse, there is a small living room, a kitchenette and a separate terrace in addition to the bedroom with bathroom/WC ensuite. The holiday home lies at one of the most popular regions of Ibiza. Some nice sandy beaches are reachable within walking distance or by car. Here one can enjoy the Mediterranean cuisine at one of the restaurants near the beach. It takes only a few minutes by car to go to Sant Josep, a popular town which lies near the highest mountain of Ibiza. Besides possibilities to do some shopping one will find inventive restaurants. A well-assorted supermarket is about 1 km away from the house. We recommend to rent a car.
