2 persons | 39 bedrooms | from 180 to 680 EUR / day

38 suites/apartments for 2 to 4 persons each, some with balcony/terrace - some with sea view - 5-hectare garden property - communal pool with pool bar - hotel beach - day-restaurant - parking lot

The idyllic 17th century Palazzo Belmonte is located in Santa Maria di Castellabate, south of the Amalfi Coast in the unspoiled Cilento National Park. With its private sandy beach, freshwater pool and extensive garden, the palazzo is an oasis of relaxation between the turquoise blue sea and the green of nature. The architecture of the palazzo, which was converted into an exclusive hotel 50 years ago by Prince and Princess Belmonte, is timeless and combines tradition and luxury in a unique way to create a harmonious overall image. Numerous artifacts and antiques bring the history of the palazzo to life. In the romantic, flower-filled inner courtyard, guests feel as if they have stepped back in time.

The palazzo consists of several buildings, each with its own unique charm. The hotel has a total of 38 rooms and suites, all furnished to a high standard and equipped with air conditioning, minibar, safe, telephone and WiFi. Casa Eduardo has standard double rooms and 6 suites, some with a separate living area, some with beautiful terraces with sea view. All rooms and suites have modern marble bathrooms with hand-painted Vietri tiles, which create a fresh and luxurious ambience.

DOMIZILE REISEN

Villa Belmonte is located off the main building in the heart of the extensive garden. It has 29 rooms of different sizes and categories. Many of the rooms are interconnecting, which is ideal for families. The rooms in the Villa Belmonte are large and bright and have a slightly more modern atmosphere and style than the Casa Eduardo. The front facing rooms have stunning terraces or balconies overlooking the sea. In the park of the palazzo with its lush vegetation, there is a large freshwater pool with sun loungers and a cocktail bar, a wonderful place to watch the sunset over Capri. Direct access to the crystal-clear water and sandy beach is just past the bar.

The Palazzo is located on the edge of the beautiful village of Santa Maria de Castellabate, perfect for an evening stroll to eat a pizza or an ice cream. The Palazzo Belmonte's restaurant is open during the day for light lunch and is closed in the evening. However, there is a large selection of restaurants to suit all tastes in the immediate vicinity of the hotel. Shops are also within walking distance.

The Palazzo is a great starting point for exploring Pompeii, Paestum or the treasures of southern Italy. The entire Palazzo can also be hired for events, weddings, birthday parties and much more.
