telephone, Internet access and Sat-TV. The suites have got a separate living room. Due to the allocation of the rooms and the separate entrances, privacy is ensured. The lush, mediterranean garden surrounding the property descends into a centuries old olive grove. Sa Pedrissa is an agroturismo hote, paying high attention on the environment and using local products. The exclusive restaurant offers a choice of mediterranean and international cuisine. Dinner will be served on the tranquil terrace or in the rustic restaurant. For the well-beeing of the guests, the hotel offers massage, beauty treatments and yoga upon supplemental cost. One can have a free daily newspaper service. The pebble beach of Cala Deya can be reached on a foot path in about half an hour. Restaurants and shops can be found in the picturesque village of Deya. Children from 12 years onwards welcome.
