This luxurious holiday villa is Menorca's best home away from home and nearly impossible to compete with. Set in remote position, one can enjoy total privacy here. On a huge plot of land the estate is embedded in the rolling hills and forests in the north of the island. The exclusive interior and tasteful decoration of the country house expresses the luxurious and classic style of the owners. Such as some valuable paintings and handcrafted four poster beds, which are typical in Spanish manor houses, just to mention two out of many details. Each bedroom has its private bathroom ensuite. The spacious kitchen is fully equipped with modern appliances. The casita features an independent suite with kitchenette and it is set only some steps away from the main house. Various
