This luxurious holiday villa is located on the outskirts of the town Busetto Palizzolo, just 20 kilometers away from Trapani. The villa lies in a very quiet area, yet not isolated. From the garden, the terraces and the rooms one can enjoy the stunning views over the beautiful surrounding landscape and the vineyards. The house is equipped in a very classy way with a composition of antiques and modern furniture and offers, both inside and outside, plenty of space for all the guests. On the ground floor, the large living room with its couches, seating furniture and Yamaha piano is very inviting and the fireplace creates a cosy feeling on cooler nights. The fully equipped kitchen is also located on the ground floor and adjoins the dining area with its large dining table. All of the eight rooms possess their own bathroom ensuite and air condition and they are individually and stylishly furnished. High ceilings, partly with wooden beams, a tasteful choice of furniture and the different colours that were chosen for the fabrics in the rooms, turn each of the rooms into something individual. The outdoor facilities of the villa offer a comfortable atmosphere. There is plenty of garden furniture available as well as sunny and shady places. The great outdoor kitchen and dining area enable large groups to have pleasant time in open air. The big pool with the decorative lumps of rock, that surround the shallow entrance is the centre of the property. Guests of the villa can book several additional services like transfers, boat charter, babysitter, wellness treatments, guided tours, cooking service. In the closer environment of the villa one can visit interesting cities and archaeological excavation, e.g. the medieval old town of Erice and the temple of Segesta.
