first floor: 4 double bedrooms, each with shower/WC ensuite and air condition

This finca is located in a small quiet hamlet in the North of the island between the villages of Buger and Sa Pobla. The property covers around 1200 sqm with a well-kept, Mediterranean garden. There is a roofed dining-/BBQ-area and a large pool (12 x 8m) with a beautiful view on the Tramuntana mountain range. During the renovation the owner has ensured to preserve the character of the 18th century building, whilst modernising the finca's technical equipment. The kitchen is in typical Majorcan style. Beamed ceilings in the first floor and beautiful old terracotta floors accentuate the finca's rustic and well-tended ambience. Beaches are easy to reach; Alcudia bay is in a 10 minutes drive. Shops and supermarkets can be found in Sa Pobla or Inca. This charming finca is an ideal place for families with children, because the pool can be fully fenced and there are plug protections, toys and babysset.
