This luxury holiday home lies in prominent position directly on the sea shore. It is just a stone throw away from the idyllic fishermen's village of Aliki on the southern end of Paros. The spacious terraces offer splendid views of Aliki, the Aegean Sea and the neighbouring island of Antiparos. The upper floor consists of the huge lounge with fireplace and Sat-TV. French doors open to the terrace. Adjacent to the lounge, there is a fully equipped kitchen with dishwasher and microwave. The three bedrooms are located in the lower floor. Each bedroom has sliding doors opening to another spacious terrace, equipped with sun loungers and parasols. One bedroom has a full bathroom ensuite. There are ceiling fans in the bedrooms and in addition there are mosquito fences to protect them from insects. So it is very comfortable to sleep here even in the hot periods without the need of an air condition. The infinity pool of 4,5 x 11 m in size is set a bit below this level. There is a built in BBQ, fridge and large table at the pool for al fresco dining. Very scenic! Two sandy beaches are within 10 to 15 minutes walking away. A
