Charming Rustico Miramar has been recently built in Canary style, surrounded by a property of 20.000 sqm. The view over the Atlantic Ocean from the garden and the roofed, embowered terrace is gorgeous and sunsets are an unforgettable experience. On the same property Casa Botanico is located, but hidden and completely separated from Rustico Miramar. Beautiful, partially antique French terracotta floors, warm colours, clean lines, the open roof structure and lattice windows emphasise the rustic and comfortable character of the house. The living room is bright and spacious and has a dining corner. A stove warms on cooler days and gives a pleasant and cosy ambience to Rustico Miramar. The country house kitchen is fully equipped. A gulling door opens up from the sleeping room with French bed to the terrace. Within 5 minutes by car there is a rocky bathing cove, it takes 30 minutes by car to get to the sandy beach of Tazacorte. Numerous shopping facilities and restaurants are available in Puntagorda.
