captured the essence of its original purpose, that of a holiday villa for the aristocracy of Turin. The villa with its luxurious accommodation for 10 people sits within a discreet and private level garden with its centuries-old trees and new swimming pool of 13 x 5 m in size. One intriguing feature of the Villa besides its stunning architectural form is the small private chapel recently fully restored. Covering three floors, Villa Nena has five bedrooms, three bathrooms, a fully equipped kitchen, a wide dining room and two living rooms with fireplace. This along with the large balconies and covered loggias invites to enjoy relaxing and stylish holidays. With its classical elegance and the luxury style of the interiors and furnishings, Villa Nena provides an exclusive location of sophistication and charm surrounded as it is by over 10 hectares of green and lush woodland. The rental villa provides for a truly relaxing and luxurious experience of living the 'Italian dream': whether as a family holiday or a celebratory event, the stunning location and the attention to detail creates an ambience that captures the true spirit of being a guest at this elegant and charming home away from home. Nearby you can find shopping facilities and romantic restaurants in the beautiful medieval town Tolentino. The well known thermal springs of Santa Lucia are only a few minutes drive away.
