Luxury resort Le Domaine de L'Orangeraie is located on the island of La Digue, the smallest of the 3 inhabited main islands of the Seychelles archipelago. La Digue is the perfect example for an authentic paradise island with deserted, white beaches, clear, warm water and a lush, tropical jungle. Le Domaine de L'Orangeraie is set directly by the sea, just a few steps away from famous Anse Severe beach. The small harbour village of La Passe can be reached within a couple of minutes walking distance. Le Domaine de L'Orangeraie features 63 villas of different categories, spread in the spacious tropical garden. The villas harmoniously nestle in the natural environment and impress with a special exotic and elegant ambiance. They are full of light and tasteful, the architecture and furnishing is inspired by Zen style. Natural materials and the concentration on the essential provide harmony and balance. The unique Villa Presidential is set privately on a small hill with stunning and endless views on the ocean and the island of Praslin. There is a dedicated 24 h butler service to pamper the guests. The Garden Villas and Villas de Charme have a spacious double bedroom with lounge area. For the third person there is a sofa platform, which can be set up to an extra bed. Connecting villas are available on request. Bikes and snorkelling equipment are free for guests of all villas. The beautiful pool area of Le Domaine de L'Orangeraie is next to the seaside. The resort offers one restaurant serving international and local Creole specialities and an all day dining A la Carte restaurant. Buffet breakfast in the restaurant is included in the villas' rate. Shopping facilities can be found in the small village of La Passe, which is easily accessible by bike or by walking.
