A nobleman from Puglia had built this ancient villa, which is dating back to 1800. It has recently been transformed into a charming holiday residence. Thanks to the attentive and careful restoration work the villa's structure has been brought back to its ancient splendour. Villa Donnarosa's location is beautiful in the middle of Salento countryside with sea view in the distance. It is surrounded by a large private estate and a well-kept Mediterranean garden of 8000 sqm. The garden features a pool area with sun loungers and panoramic view. Villa Donnarosa is spacious, bright and furnished in traditional style. It has an open ambience due to the room layout and the arched top doors on the ground floor. The living room, the dining room, the fully furnished kitchen with dining table and three double bedrooms with shower/WC are situated on the ground floor. There are two additional double bedrooms on the first floor. One of the double bedrooms can be changed into a twin bedroom. The coast with splendid beaches is only 4 km away. Porto Cesareo, the marina of S. Isidoro, several historical sites such as Gallipoli and the natural park of Porto Selvaggio can be reached within a couple of minutes by car. The villa is 3 km from the town of Santa Caterina, which offers all the necessary facilities, shops, restaurants and services. This property is offered by Ville in Italia, for whom we act as agent.
