Villa Margherita is set in the picturesque fishing village of Sant Angelo in the South of Ischia. Here guests can still find the exclusive and placid spirit the island of Ischia became famous for. Villa Margherita's location is spectacular directly above the Mediterranean Sea with magnificent view of the Bay of Naples, Capri and the hilly landscape. Villa Margherita is a small and exclusive, family-run villa, pampering its guests with all conveniences and a warm hospitality. It has two rooms, which can be rented separately or together, and a shared lounge with bar and library. The villa and its rooms are spacious and full of light; the furnishing is modern with Mediterranean flair. Selected pieces and works of art have harmoniously been combined, completing the villa's special ambience and reflecting the owner's personal history. Villa Margherita is accessible on foot from Sant Angelo port; the village itself is car-free. The guests' luggage will be taken to the villa by electric car. Daily breakfast will be served on the private panorama terrace. Villa Margherita can be rented together with Casa di Ale, which is just next door and can host up to 6 persons. The sandy and rocky beach is just a few steps from Villa Margherita. There are various shopping facilities and restaurants in the surrounding. On request, the villa's owner can arrange boat and shore excursions, boat charter, wine tasting, wellness treatments or a private chef for an exclusive dinner.
