Villa Koro is situated in the unparalleled panorama of the Cederberg Mountains in a private wilderness reserve, three hours north of Cape Town. Koro Lodge is part of the exclusive and award-winning Relais & Chateaux Hotel Bushmans Kloof Wilderness Lodge and is located just 5 km from the hotel's reception. Villa Koro was an existing farmhouse on the property, and has been transformed into an intimate, child-friendly, private villa for a family breakaway unlike any other. The lodge is fully inclusive and entirely independent, utilising its own chef and guide. The passionate staff will help to create a fun-filled activity holiday, so that the guests and their children can explore the natural abundance of the reserve, enjoy fantastic recreational pursuits and soak in the magic of this ancient landscape. The interior of the lodge has an air of comfort and luxury created through natural fibres, earth tones and traditional South African finishes. It's an inviting and relaxing space on the edge of an untamed wilderness. Enjoy music, play games, watch wildlife documentaries and let yourself be pampered amongst family and friends, in the peace of this glorious setting. Koro Lodge is available year-round for friends and families to come together and enjoy a sublime location, where savage natural beauty is juxtaposed with modern comforts, thoughtful touches and generous hospitality. Guests might like to unwind on the large terrace, or take in a cocktail in the crystalline waters of the private infinity pool. Delicious braaivleis (barbecued food) and homemade delicacies are always available and prepared by the private chef. Bushmans Kloof Wilderness Reserve is a malaria and predator free area, ensuring guests are safe to experience the wildlife and herds on their own or with a private guide.
