The exclusive 5-star Boutique-Hotel Twelve Apostles, belongs to the „Leading Small Hotels of the World“ and has 55 luxurious rooms and 15 exclusive suites. The location of the hotel is picturesque, with an unobstructed view, only a few meters above the Atlantic Ocean and at the foot of the majestic rock formations of the 12 Apostles. Twelve Apostles is famous for its outstanding comfort and it offers 2 restaurants, which are known far beyond the borders of South Africa, serving haute cuisine and excellent service. Guests are pampered in the excellent spa area with first class treatments and therapies in an extraordinary ambience in candle lit rocky caves filled with water. A highlight of the Twelve Apostles Hotel & Spa is the slightly raised heated swimming pool, which offers direct views of the Atlantic. With a little luck, you can watch whales and dolphins from your lounge chair, during the whale season. In the garden of the hotel there is a jacuzzi built of rock, surrounded by lush fynbos, offering beautiful views of the mountains. The Twelve Apostles Hotel & Spa is distinguished by its simple design, and its countless luxurious amenities. The gleaming white façade of the hotel is even used by sailors as a navigational point. Twelve Apostle Boutique Hotel has a total of 70 luxurious rooms and suites of different categories and sizes. All offer a wonderful panoramic view of the Atlantic Ocean or the majestic mountain peaks of the 12 Apostle. The rooms and suites are all spacious, bright and breezy. They are furnished and decorated in contemporary combined with African style, with hints of classical European elements and latest technology. Bright colors and rich fabrics give the room an elegant and laid-back vibe. Cape Town with its famous Waterfront is accessible with a free shuttle service within 15 minutes and the beautiful sandy beaches of Camps Bay are only a short distance from the hotel.
