Huvafen Fushi - the „paradise island" - is located in the northwestern Male Atoll. Huvafen Fushi Luxury Resort has everything you would imagine from a paradise island: lush, tropical vegetation, a white sandy beach surrounded by a turquoise lagoon, crystal clear water and a colorful underwater world. Huvafen Fushi Luxury Resort is one of the smaller resorts in the Maldives with a more intimate atmosphere and is part of the exclusive hotel group Per Aquum. It has 40 beach and lagoon bungalows for up to 3 persons and 4 larger villas with up to 3 bedrooms. The resort was built taking into consideration the principles of Feng Shui. Nature and design are harmoniously combined. Open, clear rooms and wood in combination with contemporary design, modern furniture and works of art create a special ambience. A highlight of the Huvafen Fushi Luxury Resorts is the first-class "Lime-Spa". It can be reached via a bridge into the sea and offers - worldwide unique - under water treatment rooms. Guests can enjoy culinary delights in one of the 4 restaurants. In the innovative restaurant „Raw“, raw food is served, complemented by fresh fruit and vegetable juices. Guests are offered a variety of water sport activities. The international airport of Male is just 30 minutes by speedboat.
