Villa Marie is the most Balinese of the three Pandawa Cliff Estate villas in terms of style and layout, echoing the traditional compound design of many Bali homes. Although the villa is set just back from the cliff top, nearly all of its rooms, as well as its garden and pool, offer magnificent ocean views. Gurgling ponds bordered by wooden decking are key features of the villa's garden landscape and create a relaxed and comfortable atmosphere.

Villa Marie has four individual pavilions, grouped around a T-shaped 17-metre pool. Two master suite pavilions lie opposite each other across the pool, while a glass-wrapped living pavilion sits at the heart of the villa. Villa Marie also has the advantage of a spacious outdoor dining area, with built-in barbecue and kitchenette for extra convenience. Behind the living pavilion is the two-story guest bedroom building with its four bright and spacious rooms.

Guests of Villa Marie have full access to the sports centre with squash and tennis courts, spa and gym. A friendly yet discreet team of butlers, housekeepers, and kitchen staff all work diligently under the experienced villa manager to take care of every guest requirement and two cars with drivers are on hand for those who wish to explore beyond the villa.

The crystal clear, reef-protected waters and white sands of Pandawa Beach lie immediately below the estate and can be reached via a new road that cuts down through the cliff, while many of Bali's best surf beaches are also close by. Only slightly further afield is the sacred sea temple of Uluwatu, the New Kuta Golf Club, several bars and the many fine-dining and seafood restaurants of Jimbaran and Nusa Dua.
