free. Only some minutes away from the resort, embedded in the most breathtaking nature, is the Chiang Mai Grand Canyon that flows into a pretty lake. This area is also very suitable for hiking. Other interesting day excursions can be booked in the village. If the guest just wants to relax the holiday village offers a spacious shared pool, a herb sauna and traditional thai massages. Of course free WIFI is provided for the guests. Hoshihana is a japanese word. Hoshi means star and hana means the flower. So the guest can sit under the starry sky surrounded by spectacular tropical flowers. The foundress of this holiday village is also the foundress of an orphanage close by. All proceeds from the guests stay go directly to the orphanage.
