Built with families in mind, Ichikawa Cottage is a self-contained unit that incorporates a loft sleeping area, perhaps for a child or children, and a double bed for the parents. With a wonderful front porch, guests can enjoy their meals or drinks there. The work bench inside provides a great working space for adults or craft area for children. Ichikawa Cottage consists of one building, with a twin bed loft and double bed. The cottage also has a bathroom and kitchen. The cottage is not far away from the shared pool and still lies embedded in peaceful nature. Hoshihana Village is located in a beautiful environment only 30 minutes drive away from the Chiang Mai City Center. All guests will be collected from the Chiang Mai Airport for a fee of 500THB. If booked in advance the guest can enjoy a meal in the restaurant. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are available in the restaurant or as a room service. Every cottage has a very well equipped kitchen for guests that like to cook for themselves. For a small charge of 80 THB the Village can provide a minibus transfer to the local market where the guest can find lovely fresh fruit, vegetables and many other delicious foods. To discover the beautiful surroundings the village provides bikes for free. Only some minutes away from the resort, embedded in the most breathtaking nature, is the Chiang Mai Grand Canyon that flows into a pretty lake. This area is also very suitable for hiking. Other interesting day excursions can be booked in the Village. If the guest just wants to relax the Holiday village offers a spacious shared pool, a herb sauna and traditional thai massages. Of course free WIFI is provided for the guests. Hoshihana is a japanese word. Hoshi means star and hana means the flower. So the guest can sit under the starry sky surrounded by spectacular tropical flowers. The foundress of this holiday village is also the foundress of an orphanage close by. All proceeds from the guests stay go directly to the orphanage.
