Six Senses Zighy Bay, located on Oman's Musandam Peninsula, is set on a 1.6 km stretch of sandy beach fringed with dramatic rocky mountains. Its design was inspired by a traditional Omani village, with palm- shaded laneways and sandy tracks amongst the villas. 82 generous-size pool villas comprise 1 and 2-bedroom Pool Villas and Spa Pool Villas, 2-bedroom Zighy Pool Villas and Spa Pool Villas, 2-bedroom Zighy Pool Villa Suites, The 2-bedroom Retreats and the 4-bedroom Private Reserve. The villas are designed and furnished to reflect local Omani culture, and offer privacy and tranquility. Sense on the Edge is the award-winning mountain-top dining venue 293 meters above sea level, overlooking Zighy Bay. At Summer House enjoy international cuisine overlooking the central pool and wadi from an open-air verandah. Shua Shack offers traditional Bedouin communal dining experience with under sand cooking. The Wine Cellar offers over 250 labels and also hosts small private dinners. The Vinothèque is for romantic dining atop the Wine Cellar. There's also the Spice Market and Zighy Bar. The renowned Six Senses Spa offers nine treatment rooms, a juice bar and two Arabian Hammams. It focuses on holistic and wellness programmes plus a full menu of local and signature treatments delivered by skill international therapists. An exclusive arrival option is paragliding from the mountaintop with a Six Senses professional. Other exciting activities include mountain trekking, biking, guided off-road excursions, Jungle Gym, y a Micro light aircraft, yacht charter, watersports, and Dive Center offering unique underwater experiences. There is a baby club and babysitting service, a mini- and a teen club. Of course there is an animation program for everybody, adults and kids.
