The international airport of Malé can be reached within 20 minutes by speedboat. The barefoot island of Ihuru has a size of only 200 x 200 metres - step onto an island where nature beckons and plush comforts await. Dhawa Ihuru is one of the more intimate boutique resorts of the Maldives. The 45 individual villas are set directly at the beach with lots of privacy. All villas are stylish and modern and equipped with state-of-the-art amenities. Bright walls and floors, premium furnishing, beautiful fabrics and well-conceived colours underline the villas and the islands very special ambience. Ease back in your private garden's Maldivian swing and gently kick the crystalline waters of the Indian Ocean. Enjoy delicious international and local cuisine in the Riveli restaurant and sip cocktails at the oceanfront bar in the company of graceful dolphins. Award winning Dhawa Spa pampers its guests with rejuvenating spa treatments.

Ihuru is one of the best dive and snorkel sites in North Malé Atoll; there are two great house reefs for beginners and advanced divers directly in front of the island. Or dive the famed Rannamaari wreck and admire the rich, dazzling marine life. Ihuru offers many activities for a relaxed and varied holiday: watersport facilities such as sailing, windsurfing, fishing, fun tubing, wake boarding or boot tours to neighbouring islands. Learn how to prepare Maldivian dishes or just enjoy a gorgeous meal at the beach of this paradise island.
