Following the exemplary of a typical Bavarian small village in extensive natural surroundings, in 2017 seven exclusive chalets were tastefully built around a small idyllic natural pond. Six of the chalets have three double bedrooms and can accommodate six people comfortably. A smaller chalet has two bedrooms, each with en-suite bathroom and WC. The chalets are located near beautiful small village Reit im Winkl on the German/Austrian border on the extensive grounds of a renowned sports and wellness hotel with various restaurants and a cozy bar, facilities of which are also available to the chalet guests. Each chalet has been individually decorated with exclusive and unique chosen materials. The fabrics are from Pierre Frey and all furniture comes from the renowned Bielefelder Werkstätten. From the living room you reach a furnished terrace and the garden with wonderful views of the romantic mountain landscape. An ideal location to relax peacefully. The kitchen is fully equipped and offers additionally a wine cooler/humidifier. As a highlight in each chalet there is a wellness area with sauna, infrared room, jet shower and a peaceful relaxing area to rest after the sauna.

In chalets for 6 persons, one of the bedrooms with ensuite bathroom is situated on the ground floor. The two further bedrooms with ensuite bathroom are located on the upper floor. The masterbedroom has a balcony overlooking the entire landscape. The surroundings of Reit im Winkl offers many recreation opportunities for sport lovers and families in winter as well as summer.
