Perched upon the edge of the Mediterranean Sea on the peninsula of Akamas, Anassa Hotel offers several whitewashed villas and terracotta tiled roofs which recreate a typical traditional Greek village, complete with its own Byzantine church. Andromeda Deluxe Villa is one of the villas with opulent interiors, captivating sea view and private infinity pool. This alluring three-bedroom villa is equally a star in its own right. It has a charming terrace with sea views and guests can enjoy complete privacy as well as the ultimate in luxury and opulence. The bedroom on the ground floor opens directly to the terrace and the bedrooms on the first floor have their own balconies with lounge area. The villa can accommodate 6 persons and up to 9 guests, if extra beds are requested.

The name of the villa derives from princess Andromeda who was transformed into a star constellation according to Greek mythology, after having been saved from a sea-dragon and death by Perseus, her future husband, the ancestor of the Persians.

While enjoying the privacy of the Andromeda Deluxe Villa, guests have the possibility to use all services and facilities of the Anassa Hotel such as the four restaurants. The open-air pool restaurant offers fresh fish and herbs from the hotel's own garden. In the Thalasso spa area you can enjoy soothing massages, Thalasso treatments or cosmetic treatments for body and mind.
