several cafés and snack bars, several tennis courts, a squash court, a pitch-and-putt court or a visit to the astronomical observatory.

The Villas Las Palmeras are characterised by their extraordinary pergola, surrounded by gardens, and three defined areas: The living room, the bedroom and terrace. It features furniture designed exclusively by the renowned interior designer Pascua Ortega, which along with other decorative elements, create an atmosphere of warmth and relaxation. The living room which leads to the terrace has exclusively designed furnishings together with the selection of delicate fabrics and carpets. The bedroom, distributed in two levels, has an ample four-poster bed and also direct access to the terrace and is finished off with an exotic, pitched bamboo roof. A large bathroom with its stunning bath tub set in basalt stone and with a natural skylight offers an aromatherapy bath menu and Aqua di Parma amenities.

In the exterior part of the villa a sun deck, a dining area as well as a heated infinity pool are located on a great private terrace.

Next to this villa type Las Palmeras, 2 further, differently sized villa types are situated on the hotel premises of Bahía del Duque: Villas Mimosas and Villas Retamas.
