hotel with the individuality and intimacy of a private vacation villa. And in addition, Royal Villa guests enjoy all the exclusive facilities and amenities of The Oberoi Marrakech. The Royal Villa, with 355 square meters of living space, is spacious and flooded with light, featuring hand-carved ceilings, crystal chandeliers, silk carpets and marble floors. It opens to a large garden with terrace and heated pool, accessible from all rooms of the residence. The villa has two bedrooms with king size beds, each with private bathroom and dressing room. There is a separate living room with a fireplace, a dining room and a fully equipped kitchen. All rooms are structured around a central courtyard with a water fountain, a pure spring that refreshes and revitalizes the soul. Each room is characterized by a harmony of colors and a sense of authentic details. Upon arrival, guests will notice the discretion and intimacy of the Royal Villa, which extends from the paths of the gardens to the entrance of the villa. The international airport, the medina of Marrakech with the central market place Djemaa El Fna and the old city wall can be reached within 25 minutes.
