Verdura Resort is located on the southwest coast of Sicily by the sea on 230 hectares of Sicilian countryside with its own vegetable garden, orange and olive groves and almost two kilometers of private Mediterranean coastline. Sciacca is just a few kilometers away and right next to the resort there are the orange groves of Ribera.

Verdura Resort is an oasis of well-being, relaxation and indulgence with excellent service. It is discreetly nestled in the landscape and captivates with its spacious indoor and outdoor areas and its wide natural spaces. In total, the resort has 211 rooms, suites and private villas of different categories, some with private pools. All rooms, suites and villas are exclusively and stylishly furnished and equipped to a high standard. From the private balcony or terrace of the rooms, guests have an unobstructed view of the sea.

With its magnificent sandy beach, wide range of water sports, a 4,000 square meter spa, two championship golf courses and many other sporting facilities, the resort offers a comprehensive range of activities for every taste.

The resort's exquisite restaurants prepare organic ingredients grown on the resort's own land.

The Valley of the Temples, with the archaeological site of Agrigento, and the temple of Selinunte are both just 40 minutes away by car. The capital Palermo is just over an hour's drive away, and the Aeolian, Egadi and Pelagian Islands can be easily reached by helicopter.
