DOMIZILE REISEN

fashion family of Salvatore and Wanda Ferragamo. Originally dating back to the 16th century, the former manor house has been carefully restored to its original splendor and modern amenities have been added. The villa is surrounded by a large, well-tended garden with an infinity pool, various terraces and mature trees. The villa's furnishings are a tribute to Tuscan elegance. The antiques in combination with exclusive individual treasures made by local craftsmen, fine materials and fabrics in warm colours as well as the original frescoes and fireplaces ensure that Villa Viesca still has plenty of the charming atmosphere of past times. Villa Viesca has a total of 9 double bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, a large dining room and various cosy and stylish living areas, including a reading room and a living room that opens onto a panoramic terrace with views of the magnificent countryside. On the ground floor is the former private chapel, where guests can celebrate weddings, as well as a museum room with more than 300 artefacts that illustrate the history and life of Tuscan farmers in days gone by.

Guests of the villa can enjoy the culinary delights of the Viesca Toscana estate with first-class, authentic Tuscan creations. Award-winning wines and wine tastings complete the culinary experience. Guests can pamper their senses in the Corte Viesca Spa. The Viesca Toscana also offers tennis courts, riding lessons, guided mountain bike or trekking tours, yoga courses and much more. Daily breakfast is served to guests in the villa. Other exclusive and customised services make a stay at Villa Viesca unique and authentic. The villa can be rented with 6 bedrooms for up to 12 people or with 9 bedrooms for up to 18 people.
