5 bedrooms and an annexe with 1 bedroom. It has a large living room with high ceilings, wood-burning stove and French doors leading out onto the terrace, a fully equipped modern kitchen with breakfast bar/dining table, a dining room and a cosy living room where the children can watch TV. There are 5 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms in the main house and 1 further bedroom with bathroom in the separate annexe. In the manicured walled garden there is a barbecue for enjoying family meals and a hot tub for 7 people to relax at the same time. On request, you can hire a chef to prepare meals and also book a cleaning service. Alternatively, there are plenty of good local restaurants in the area. Stuckdarach is just a short stroll from the shores of enchanting Lake Lomond, Scotland's largest lake by area and part of Loch Lomond & The Trossachs National Park. Surrounded by rolling mountains, picturesque villages and golf courses, it offers a wealth of outdoor adventures on land and water - including cycling, horse riding, boating, canoeing, water skiing and much more! From here you can also drive to Ben Lomond, a 974 metre high mountain from whose summit you have a fantastic view of the whole of Loch Lomond and its islands. Or simply take a trip to the beautiful villages around the loch and visit the cafés, restaurants and numerous shops.
