Cauti Uno is a lovingly restored farmhouse, originally built more than 200 years ago. It has a unique position between the mountains and the sea with spectacular views of the Mediterranean Sea. There is a solar heated pool in the garden as well as a BBQ and a wood burning stove, where bread and pizza can be prepared. The garden has roughly 1000sqm. The tasteful interieur of this vacation villa consists of rustic furniture and antique decoration so that the house still provides the character of a well tended farm house. When renovated, also the bathrooms have been brought to the standard one would expect from a good holiday home. The renown town of Altea attracts many tourists at this part of the Spanish cost, yet it has kept it's charm and seems untouched since decades. There is a vast choice of traditional restaurants offering fresh seafood and local cuisine found at the
