Casa del Lago is a wonderfully situated semi-detached holiday house, perched right on the shores of Lago Maggiore. The spacious private garden extends right up to the lake, where there is a jetty for the owner's boat. Although the owner and her daughter live in the other half of the house, one will enjoy complete privacy. The house is comfortably furnished and selected antiques give the rooms a special flair. One suite like double bedroom with ensuite bathroom is set on the entrance level. It has an interconnecting door to the entrance hall and also direct access to the garden. The other double bedroom is connected to the entrance hall by an open staircase. Here there is a single bed, suitable for a child. The location of this holiday home is perfect for
