This luxurious and tastefully furnished villa is in the area of the secured natural resort Zimbali Forest Estate. Here is a firstclass golf course, which was arranged by the PGA-Champion Tom Weiskopf. Every room provides a breathtaking view of the Indian ocean, with good weather even to the skyline of Durban. The vacation domicile is mainly furnished in japanese style. All the doors can be pushed back, so a fully open feeling of living gets to the guests. The television room offers everything for perfect entertainment, beginning from the DVD-player to the soundsystem, which can be handled from every room individually, even from the pool. In front of the house is a pond with seldom fishes. The pool and the big terrace are situated on the side of the house facing the sea. There
